Lists of the giants where Goliath came from and his brothers:

Joshua 13:3-5, “From Sihor, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Canaanite: five lords of the Philistines; the Gazathites (1), and the Ashdothites (2), the Eshkalonites (3), the Gittites (4), and the Ekronites (5); also the Avites: From the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that is beside the Sidonians, unto Aphek, to the borders of the Amorites: And the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrising, from Baalgad under mount Hermon unto the entering into Hamath.”

1 Chronicles 20:4-8, “And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines; at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Sippai, that was of the children of the giant: and they were subdued. And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam. And yet again there was war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was the son of the giant. But when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother slew him. These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.”

2 Samuel 15:19-22, “Then said the king to Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and also an exile. Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee. And Ittai answered the king, and said, As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be. And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.”

2 Samuel 21:16-22, “And Ishbibenob, which was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David. But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the light of Israel. And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was of the sons of the giant. And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaareoregim, a Bethlehemite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant. And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea the brother of David slew him. These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.”

Isaiah 20:1, “In the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it;”

The names of cities were named after people who were named after their gods which were the product of the angels that fell prior to the flood in Noah’s time. The gods are associated with people that were named after them. The gods come from the angels that lost their first estate. The sons of God that joined with the daughters of men and had children that died in the flood as did the sons of God and the daughters of men. However the children that came from that union is said of them that they were men of renown but because they were spirit beings with bodies and when they died like men they came out on the other side of the flood as disembodied spirits. Satan that deceived the sons of God while traveling with the sons of God (Job 1 & 2) also recruited their children after the flood but only recruited a few. They became the devils that are trying to inhabit other people through spiritual subjugation through idol worship. Satan will recruit more during the tribulation time and the devilment will step up its pace.

These Genealogies are not complete, and is not meant to be an accurate representation of or a complete truth. There is too many loose ends and make the lines disconnected. What this does show is the connection to all the gods, and the nations who espouse the worship of these devils.

The pagan practices of these nations in things like passing of their sons and daughter through fire to their gods. Idol worship leads to the worst pagan practices like bloodletting involved in tattooing or piercings, drinking human blood, eating human flesh.

1 John 5:21, “Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.” Not all idols are made out of stone, metal, rock, or physical things. If you put something in the way of your worship of God through Jesus Christ our Lord, you have an idol in your heart. You can fight it by the words of God: Psalms 119:11, “Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.” Be careful of your heart: Proverbs 4:23, “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.”
