

THE Illogical FROM Logic AND Reason

By: David A. Sargent

Logic and Reason do not produce a sound understanding of Right and Wrong. There MUST be a RULE that is followed that is TRUE and RIGHT. Just because a sound reasoning through a pattern of logic deduces a systematic logical outcome, does not make that outcome right. The premise must be accurately correct and right for the outcome to be so. In programming college they say: garbage in garbage out! This is true of all logical processes. The programming of computers follows a logical pattern. But if your data input is incorrect, the outcome will also be incorrect. This seems to be common sense; however, there are some who enjoy the somewhat illogical processing of wrong data to prove that they can give a logical answer based on the logical pattern to ascertain the illogical answers derived thereby.

I found this math statement online:

If  $1+5=12$  and if  $2+10=24$  and if  $3+15=36$  then what is  $5+25=?$

They logic would dictate that  $1+5=12$  means  $1 \times 2 + 5 \times 2 = 12$ . In mathematics there is a hierarchical logic of the operands when there is no parenthesis “()”. So that the parenthetical segregated operands come first. So where there is no parenthesis then working from high to low multiplication, division, addition then subtraction in that order. So that  $1 \times 2 + 5 \times 2 = 2 + 10 = 12$  is true and  $1 \times 2 + 5 \times 2 = 2 + 5 \times 2 = 7 \times 2 = 14$  is wrong. Unless the statement was  $((1 \times 2) + 5) \times 2 = 14$  which then would be true.

Now that we have established this mathematical fact the logic dictates that  $1+5=12$  means  $1 \times 2 + 5 \times 2 = 12$  so that:

1	X	2	+	5	X	2	=	12
2	X	2	+	10	X	2	=	24
3	X	2	+	15	X	2	=	36
4	X	2	+	20	X	2	=	48
5	X	2	+	25	X	2	=	60
6	X	2	+	30	X	2	=	72
7	X	2	+	35	X	2	=	84
8	X	2	+	40	X	2	=	96
9	X	2	+	45	X	2	=	108
10	X	2	+	50	X	2	=	120

And so forth and so on...

However the logic is faulty because the data is FALSE:

Assuming  $1+5=12$  means  $1 \times 2 + 5 \times 2 = 12$  is a logical error because:

$1+5=12$  is False. The correct answer is 6.

$2+10=24$  is False. The correct answer is 12.

$3+15=36$  is False. The correct answer is 18.

Ergo  $5+25=?$  The correct answer is 30.

Saying "IF something" does not make it RIGHT. Once you put "=" in the mix you MUST make it a true statement or it is FALSE and therefore INCORRECT. The assumptions produced by this ERROR are also FALSE. Assuming for a moment  $1+5=12$  you MUST put the equation through a mental gymnastics so that the right answer doubles. However that is NOT the statement.  $1+5=(1+1)+(5+5)$  is still NOT TRUE. However  $(1+1)+(5+5)=12$  is true. This is NOT a solution to the original problem it is an assumption read into the problem. Things that are not the same are NOT EQUAL.

People don't like to deal with RIGHT and WRONG or TRUE and FALSE. They are too absolute for most people that want to assume these things do not exist. The abstract illogical thinker will strive at great lengths to prove that there are no absolutes:

If  $1+5=12$  and if  $2+12=24$  and if  $3+15=36$  were actually true, then there would be no way to make a CORRECT statement about “ $5+25=?$ ” unless you followed that same false assumptions and illogical fallacies. Fact is to make things EQUAL they must be the SAME. If you add  $1+5$  you get 6, but 6 does NOT EQUAL 12 that is therefore an INCORRECT STATEMENT; Ergo a FALICY.

If the argumentative statements are invalid, the outcome will also be invalid even if the logic is sound. Sound logic never implies a correct answer. The answer of a logical statement is always based on the premise being true. If the premise is FALSE the outcome of the logic will also be FALSE.

If Sam is a man, and all men have beards, than Sam has a beard.

This is sound logic, however: the statement that “all men have beards” is not true. But if you follow the logic it produces a true sounding logical statement which is only true IF the premise is also true. It is logically true, but is it actually TRUE? NO. Because not all men have beards! ERGO Sam may or may not have a beard, it is UNCERTAIN because there is not enough information to KNOW for certain because the premise is incorrect.

In plain English: if  $2+2$  is not 4 then you cannot count on ANY equation equaling its counterpart.  $2+2=4$  will always be the same.  $2+2$  will never equal 8 or 5 or 16 or 37. IF you were to say  $2+2=37$  you would get a big red X on your test sheet because it is WRONG!

Numbers are precise and exact. You can't build a house or construct a machine with fake math or abstract logic, or assumptions in logical calculations. It is therefore not only illogical, but also a production of futility resulting in uselessness.

Job 15:31, “Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompence.”

Job 15:35, “They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.”

Psalms 12:2, “They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.”

Psalms 62:9, “Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.”

Psalms 2:1-5, “Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision. Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.”

Psalms 94:11, “The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.”

Psalms 144:8, “Whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.”

Isaiah 59:4, “None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.”

Ezekiel 13:8, “Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord GOD.”

Ephesians 4:17-24, “This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. But ye have not so learned Christ; If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.”

Proverbs 23:7a, “For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he...”

Mark 7:21-23, “For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.”

1. evil thoughts
2. adulteries
3. fornications
4. murders
5. Thefts
6. Covetousness
7. Wickedness
8. Deceit
9. Lasciviousness
10. an evil eye
11. blasphemy
12. pride
13. foolishness

Proverbs 11:1, “A false balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is his delight.”

If _____ + _____ = _____ is incorrect it is a false balance. The balance is the “=” of any equation.

Galatians 6:7, “Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.”

If you cannot COUNT, do not show to others your ignorance lest you reveal yourself a FOOL and IGNORANT. You ARE going to REAP what you SOW!

People want to change the truth into a lie to make an alibi for their sin:

Romans 1:22-25, “Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.” And Titus 1:16, “They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.” This very thing is what produced Idol Worship, Paganism, Perversions and Satanism. And it is perpetrated by Professors in higher learning Colleges. Where you get degrees of higher learning: MA, DD, Th.D., PhD, etc. It is not a bad thing to get a degree, just don’t let them talk you out of your Bible. Stay humble, keep the faith, and never ever become just a professor: stay being a believer.

2 Corinthians 9:10-14, “Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;) Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God. For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God; Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men; And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.”

1 Timothy 6:12, “Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.”

Hebrews 3:1-2, “Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.” And Hebrews 4:14, “Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.” And Hebrews 10:23, “Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)”

1 Thessalonians 5:23-24, “And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.”

Hebrews 12:1-3, “Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.”

2 Peter 1: 2-4, “Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.”
